

PASSOVER

The Bible tells about a king who didn't listen to God. So God showed his power to the king. He took all the oldest sons from the people in the king's land.

God's people lived there, too. But God kept them safe. He told each family to put the blood of a lamb on their front doors.

Set a sheet of white paper in front of you on its side. Let's draw the front doors to show where God told them to put blood.

Use a pencil to draw a door that starts at the bottom of the page. Make the door as tall as a marker.

Lay a marker on the page and trace around it to make a door frame for the sides and top of your doorway.

Use a marker to put red on the side posts and the top post. That's where God told his people to put lamb's blood.

When God saw the blood on the doors, he passed by those houses. He didn't take the sons from these families.

Write your name on the back of your paper.

Put away all your supplies.
